DEMAND OF MME. DREVEUS CONDENSED TELEGRAMS.

The Wife of the French Exile Appeals to M. Sarrien, the Minister of Justice.

DEMANDS A REVISION OF THE TRIAL

M. Sarrien Informed His Colleagues of the Receipt of the Request, and In-Timated that the Matter Would Receive Attention When the New Minister for War Shall Have Been Appointed.

New York, Sept. 6,-A dispatch to the Herald from Paris says: Following is the text of Mme, Dreyfus' demand to the minister of justice for a revision of her husband's trial:

Mme. Dreyfus' Appeal. "I had the honor in the month of July, to place before you a request in which I asked you to exercise the right conferred upon you by law-and which is conferred upon no one elseto transmit to the court of cassation for consideration the judgment rendered against my unfortunate husband, in violation of article 101 of the military code.

"I have the honor, now, monsieur le ministre, again to address you a second time, appealing to you because, the law which governs such a revision does not permit me directly, and by my own agency, to invoke justice. You, and you alone, have the right to effect a revision of the judgment bringing with it condemnation, on the ground of the discovery of new facts and without reference to or assistance from all the revelations of many and daughters, months past, which have thrown so
